Dear Mr. Chonyera,

On behalf of the State of Indiana, I want to thank you for your dedication to supporting, educating, and inspiring the next generation of Hoosier STEM graduates.

For our students to succeed, it truly takes a village. By dedicating your time to helping these students design and test their own rockets, you have given them the opportunity to learn valuable life skills that will shape their futures. Your mentorship provides these young men and women with a powerful outlet to pursue creativity, practice critical thinking, and demonstrate the ingenuity needed to carry Indiana to new heights.

To the students joining us today: we look forward to seeing your hard work pay off as you test your creations here at the Sheridan Airport. I wish you the best of luck and wish your rockets a safe flight. Take what you have learned here today and use these skills as you continue your education and build even greater creations in the future.

Sincerely,

Mike Braun
Governor of Indiana
